

DIVERSITY POLICY

1. PURPOSE

Pacifico Minerals Limited ("Pacifico" or the "Company") is committed to growing a diverse workforce and a work environment in which every employee is treated fairly, respected and has the opportunity to contribute to business success, while being given the opportunities to realise their full potential as individuals.

Diversity at Pacifico refers to all characteristics that make individuals different from each other. It includes characteristics or factors such as religion, race, ethnicity, language, gender, sexual orientation, disability, age or any other area of potential difference.

Pacifico understands that the wide array of experiences and perspectives resulting from such diversity promotes innovation and business success. Managing diversity makes us creative, productive, responsive, competitive and creates value for our shareholders.

2. SCOPE

This policy applies to all Pacifico employees, including contractors and consultants acting on the company's behalf and includes the recruitment and selection process, terms and conditions of employment including pay, promotion, work assignment, training and any other aspect of employment.

To the extent practicable, Pacifico will address the recommendation and guidance provided in the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations in its Annual Report.

3. POLICY

When valuing and managing diversity Pacifico will:

- Attract and retain a skilled and diverse workforce that best represents the talent available in the communities in which our assets are located and our employees reside.
- Promote and maintain a work environment that values and utilises the contributions of employees with diverse backgrounds, experience and perspectives through improved awareness of the benefits of workplace diversity, human resources policies, systems and processes and successful management of diversity.
- Build and maintain a safe work environment by taking action against inappropriate workplace behaviour including discrimination, harassment, bullying, victimisation and vilification.
- Set measurable objectives for gender diversity which will be monitored and reviewed against the effectiveness of this policy and associated procedures. The Board will report the respective proportions of men and women on the Board, in the Senior Executive Group and across the entire organisation.
- Build a workforce that is provided with opportunities to develop skills and experience for career advancement, learning and development.

- Ensure that succession and talent management processes provide the necessary learning and development opportunities to develop the skills and experience necessary for employees to be considered for advancement to more senior roles, including the executive team and the Board.
- Ensure appropriate selection criteria based on diverse skills, experience and perspectives is used when hiring new staff, including Board members. Job specifications, advertisements, application forms and contracts will not contain any direct or inferred discrimination. Pacifico is empowered to engage professional consultants to assist in the hiring process by presenting diverse candidates to the Company for consideration.
- Ensure that applicants and employees of all backgrounds are encouraged to apply for, and have fair opportunity to be considered for all available roles.
- Ensure that our standards and procedures address specific barriers to groups of employees, by developing flexible work practices to meet the differing needs of employees.
- Comply with equal opportunity and anti-discrimination legislation.
- Ensure transparency of board processes, review and appointments. Refer to the Board Charter for further detail relating to the roles and responsibilities of the Board.

4. RESPONSIBILITIES

- It is the responsibility of all directors, officers and employees to comply with the Company's Diversity Policy and report violations or suspected violations in accordance with this Diversity Policy.
- Managers are responsible for understanding their role in promoting diversity, communicating and implementing policies and procedures effectively and working with staff to integrate the values of diversity into employment practices.
- Everyone working at Pacifico is responsible for understanding this policy and incorporating it into their daily work practices.
- The Board of Directors will lead and approve policy review, revision as appropriate and monitoring of data collected.

5. TRAINING

Managers and staff will receive appropriate resources, training and support in the implementation of this policy.

6. MONITORING

Pacifico will ensure data from organisational recruitment processes, employee communications including grievances, and exit interviews is monitored to influence the evolution of policies and action plans. This policy will be reviewed on an ongoing basis to reflect changes in law, demographics and agency priorities.

7. COMPLIANCE

Any breach of compliance with this Diversity Policy is to be reported directly to the Chairman, Managing Director, or Company Secretary, as appropriate. Anyone breaching this Diversity Policy may be subject to disciplinary action, including termination.
